ON TOUR OF INSPECTION

State Legislators Pay a Visit to the University and Asylum.

The legislators have come and gone. At least, some of them have gone and the remainder will be away Monday morning to resume their work of grinding out laws.

Their mission was to visit the University and asylum. The morning was spent at the former place. After inspecting the various buildings and discussing matters of appropriation with Dr. Stubbs, they attended general assembly in the gymnasium. At least 500 professors, students and townspeople were present.

The following were introduced and made brief addresses: Senators Bell, Flanagan, Jackson and Williams, and Assemblymen Jacobs, Sweeney, Van Puzer, Platt and Wilson. The burden of their remarks was the aid given the University by the State and the duties the students owed to Nevada. They told how the graduates had gone to Alaska, Australia, Mexico and the Transvaal to teach foreigners how to work their mines.

Senator Jackson received an ovation when he arose. The students went wild. He received the college yell again and again and inquiries as to "What's the matter with Jackson?" and the responses that he was "all right" were stentoriously made.

The former professor of the school of mines was visibly affected and he spoke falteringly. It was a difficult task imposed upon him—this greeting his old students.

Dr. Stubbs was host at a banquet spread in the dining hall, after which the legislators were conveyed to the asylum.

They visited all the wards in the institution and inspected the grounds. Many commendations of Dr. Patterson's management were heard.

Confidence Man Captured.

Constable Leeper was notified last night by Salt Lake authorities of the capture of Fred Hassell, the smooth article who worked a Washoe county official and a Reno business man out of $50 by means of bogus checks a few days ago.

Two More Weddings.

H. S. Highland and Alice Ernest of Sacramento were married yesterday. J. J. Arguillo of San Jose and Miss Meister of Stockton also got tied up.

VARSITY
DOINGS

Short Summing up of the Happenings up on the Hill of Learning.

The museum has been enriched by the only duplicate made of the Senate memorial resolution on the death of Queen Victoria. It is the gift of C. A. Norcross.

Another try-out will be had in a day or two to decide who shall represent the U. of N. in the inter-collegiate debates. The theme will be municipal ownership of public utilities.

A five lap slider track is being built around the foot-ball field. Hereafter the college athletic contests will be held here instead of at the fair grounds.

Preparations are already being made for field-day contests. The U. of N. team will probably try its skill against the University of Utah and Washington. There is fine timber in the school this year, a good springer being the only lack.

Memorial Services at Trinity Today.

Memorial services on the occasion of the British Queen's funeral will be held at Trinity Episcopal church today at 2 p. m.

Processional, Hymn 176, "For All Thy Saints Who from Their Labors Rest."

Burial Chant, Psalm 39
Hymn 398, "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand,"
Anthem, "I Heard a Voice from Heaven."

Hymn 679, "There is a Blessed Home."
Recessional, "God Save the King."

Seriously Injured.

Edwin, the little son of A. J. Taylor, was seriously hurt yesterday. He pitched his sled to a delivery wagon, and while enjoying the ride he fell from his sled and landed on his head. He was picked up unconscious.

Dr. Phillips says he is probably suffering from concussion of the brain.

For Collection of Costs.

Papers were filed by George Wedekind yesterday instituting suit against Thomas Dougherty and E. McPhail for collection of costs in the Bell-Wedekind suit tried last week. McPhail and Dougherty went on Bell's costs bond in the sum of $1500.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to earnestly thank all those who showed sympathy and kindness at the time of my recent bereavement.
